Operating Status of Plants in China

As reported in some media, Dongguan Chang'an Rihua Electronic Plant, one of the Company's manufacturing contractors in China, and Dongguan Alps Electronics Co., Ltd., one of the Company's subsidiaries in China, temporarily suspended plant operation from July 1, 2014.

As of July 4, 2014, the plants have partially resumed operation and we are taking measures to restore production as soon as possible with the cooperation of the relevant authorities in China.

We will make an announcement again when all operations have resumed as normal.
